THE SALVATION ARMY.

Two of Its Officers Visit the President.

At the White House today there was the novelty of Salvation Army bonnets and blood-and-fire costumes. This was due to the fact that Brigadler Alice Lewis and Ensign Annie Sands Anderson had been Ensign Annie Sands And@son had been deputed to a special mission among the soldiers and saliors of America, and that in the course of their work they called upon the President.

Commander Booth-Tucker, of the Salvation Army commissioned these two women warriors to go among the soldiers and saliors to the several camps and batilefields, and on the various ships of the nation, for spiritual work. They left New York last evening, and this forenoon they called upon Adjutant General Corbin, at the Wat Degactment, and were presented with letters warmly commending the project upon which they were engaged, and bespeaking for them the sympathy and assistance of all persons they might meet. They were presented to other officials, and were resented to oth ossistance of all persons they might meet.

Brigadier Lewis formerly was a prominent opera singer, and she possesses great charm of feature and voice. She will sing and preach to the "Jack tars" and the boys in blue, and in that way try to win them to think of mother and of mother's God.

The Palin.

Ensign, Anderson is secretary of the League of love, a branch of the Salva-tion Army, in New York, which is de-voted to rescue work among women. She will assist the brigadier, and the natty blue suit of the Salvation Army bids fair to be a common and felicitous feature of the war with Srain up the march with it.

This evening they will conduct a farewell meeting at the hall, No. 320 Pennsylvania Avenue, at which many prominent persons have signified their intention to be present.

Ordered to Command the Dorothy. Lieutenant Commander W. J. Barnett has been ordered to command the steam yacht Dorothy, now at Crampe' shipyard, Philadelphia, which was purchased on Saturday from the McKean estate. Lieutenant Commander Barnett commanded the lighthouse tender Bache while that vessel was in Havana harbor soon after the Maine was blown up. He expects to have aboard the yacht one 4-inch rapid-fire riffe and several 6-pounders, within two weeks, when she will start for Cuba. The Navy Department has purchased Lleutenant Commander W. J. ST. PAUL SAILS FOR KEY WEST

A Son of Kentucky Was on the Hoston at Manife.

Fort Monroe, Va., May 3.-The cruiser New Orleans joined the flying squadron at Old Point Comfort last night. It is stated that the lighthouse authorities at Cape Henry were in a quandary as to how to report the warship, which was purchased recently of the Brazilian govern-ment, and reported that "a big white ship with yellow funnels" had passed in. It is expected that the New Orleans will coal here, and while her bunkers are beng replenished will receive her coat of Nothing happened today to disturb the gloom which has settled upon the officers of the flying squadron. One of them sumned up the situation in this wise: "Dewined up the situation in this wise: "Dewined a home run; Sampson's at the bat, and—where do we come a?".

The newly-converted 'iner St. Paul, commanded by Capt. Sigsbee, is due to stop here today for coal before proceeding to Key West.

The converted lighthouse tender Suwa nee will leave for Key West today.

Lieutenant John Gibson. Lexington, Ky., May 3.-Lleut, John Gibson, navigator of the Boston, one of Admiral Dewey's ships, was born in Clay County, Ky., forty-two years ago. He was appointed by the late Congressman Matt Adams a cadet to Annapolla. He graluated with honor, and afterward took a post-graduate course. He was put into active service, and has been on duty ever since.

He was next in the line of promotion to Lucien Young the Kentuckian who saved so many lives at the Haron disaster, and for which Congress voted him a medal.

Lieut. Gibson was married five years ago to a young lady of Elizabeth, N. J., and she is now in Hong Kong.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Ross-ville, York County, Pa., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a battle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequaled. Calls Forth Cheers. Seldom has a greater crowd gathered to view a procession than that which collected on the principal thoroughfares of the city this morning to see the parade of the Wild West Show and Congress of Rough Riders. The small boy was much in evidence, but the aforesaid boy's mother and elder sister were also present in large numbers. Long before the hour set for the start the crowd began to gather, and by the time the head of the procession left the grounds the police found it difficult to keep the sidewalks from being blockaded. e parade was long and entertaining. and was made up of performers in the show in the dress and mounted on the horses they ride at every performance. Of course Col. W. F.
